Subject: Notice of Intellectual Property Infringement

Etsy

Etsy received a report of copyright infringement from Ice By Issa alleging that certain content in your Etsy shop infringe their intellectual property. When a complaining party submits a report of alleged infringement that complies with our policies, we are required to remove the content cited in the report in accordance with our Intellectual Property Policy. Learn more about how Etsy handles these types of reports.

Etsy deactivated the 1 listing specified as infringing in the report and refunded the listing fees.

We may also place a reserve on your Payment account for 90 days as a precaution, in accordance with the Etsy Payments Policy. Throughout this period, funds from orders placed with your shop will become available for deposit when an order is shipped with tracking information showing the item is in transit or 45 days from each sale date, whichever is earlier. Sellers in certain regions can buy shipping labels directly on Etsy that include tracking. Etsy is not able to access tracking events for some carriers. If we can't determine if an order is in transit, the reserved funds will become available 45 days after the sale. The reserve will be removed from your Payment account in 90 days, unless there are additional policy infractions in your account. Learn more about Payment account reserves.

You may consider filing a counter notice if you have a good faith belief that the infringement report you received involved a mistake or misidentification. If the reporting party withdraws the report(s) of intellectual property infringement, the funds in your Payment account will be released. Read our DMCA counter notice policy to see if you qualify to file a counter notice. If you believe you qualify, you can submit a DMCA counter notice using the following unique link: <https://www.etsy.com/legal/ip/counter>

The complaining party identified exactly which listings infringe their intellectual property; this decision was not made by Etsy. If you have questions about the report, please contact Marissa Garcia (hello@icebyissa.com), the authorized representative of Ice By Issa who provided Etsy with the report. Etsy is not in a position to speak on behalf of the complaining party and cannot provide legal advice. If you have legal questions, you may wish to speak with an attorney.

Do not create additional listings for this content unless the issue is resolved with the other party. Repeat notices of infringement may result in the permanent suspension of selling privileges.
